Terms and Conditions:

- Members must be considered eligible by the Director of the RIAI for inclusion in the lottery. All applications will be dealt with in the strictest confidence.
- One lottery for a free attendance place will be held per programmed event.
- All other communication regarding the lotteries should be via email or fax only to the following address: tharte@riai.ie
- On registration for a particular course lottery the applicants name will automatically be brought forward to the course lottery for the next event of the same name, should the applicant be unsuccessful in the initial lottery draw.
- The acceptance of a free attendance place will automatically preclude a member from entering any future RIAI CPD course place lotteries.
- This offer includes a free attendance place for the course only and excludes all other expenses.
- CPD courses can be cancelled at short notice for a number of reasons including insufficient attendees. In the case of the course being cancelled, the awarded discounted place will be offered at the next scheduled course.
