Learning Outcomes:

- An understanding of the principles of Inclusive Design
- Background to legislation governing accessibility of the built environment in Ireland
- Implications of the Disability Act 2005, Building Control Act 2007, Equal Status and Employment Equality Legislation,
- An understanding of the principles underpinning the Technical Guidance to Part M 2000
- Awareness of the proposed amendments to Part M 2010 and its Technical Guidance
- Knowledge of which legislation and guidance to apply to various project and building types
- Ability to clearly set out relevant information when preparing a Disability Access Certificate Application and how to structure an Accessibility Report
- Examination of case studies

Special Requirements: Attendees are asked to confirm any special accessibility or other requirements to the RIAI in the field provided on the booking form below.

In recognition of the current economic conditions, the RIAI is also operating a lottery to award 1 free place to an unwaged member and a second lottery to award 1 place at a 50% discount on the full course attendance to one member who can make a case to prove that they are experiencing substantial financial hardship. Interested members should download the relevant CPD lottery form from the Access to CPD area of the RIAI website and forward the form together with proof of circumstances to tharte@riai.ie or fax to 01 6610948. All correspondence in relation to this offer should be submitted in writing only.*
